Text 1

W: Would you like to go for a run together?

M: Seriously? Look, how dark it is! It may start raining any minute.

W: I know. But I love running in such weather. I hate the strong sunshine.

M: Then, I will take a rain check.

pause00'10"

Text 2

W: What time does the party start?

M: It starts at 9 o'clock. I think I'll arrive half an hour late because I have to work late today.

Text 3

W: How may I help you?

M: I am shopping for a pair of sports shoes. Where is the footwear department?

W: Oh, it's there just opposite the lift.

M: Thank you.

pause00' 10"

Text 4

M: Watch out, Mom. I dropped a plate and it broke into pieces on the floor. I should have just cleared the table instead of washing the dishes.

W: Tom, what's done is done. Now let's clean it up.

pause00'10"

Text 5

W: Did you get some gas for the car?

M: Oh, I forgot. We'd better get some on our way back. Shall we get something to eat outside the theatre now?

W: I'm not hungry now. Let's go for a mid-night dinner after the play.

Text 6

W: Hello, Mary speaking.

M: Hi, Mary. This is Jack. I called you yesterday, but you were not at home. Didn't your sister Jenny tell you?

W: No, she probably forgot. She is busy preparing for her exams these days.

M: I tried your cellphone, but you didn't answer.

W: Actually, I didn't have my cellphone with me. Anyway, what did you want to tell me?

M: I wanted to invite you to dinner on Saturday. So do you have any plans then?

W: No, not at all. See you then.

W: What's this supposed to be?

M: It's my new bookcase. I just have to put it together.

W: Why didn't you buy one which was ready?

M: I like making things.

W: I know, but this is a lot of work. Is it worth it?

M: Of course! I saved $60.

W: Wow, I had no idea.

M: You know what? The next thing I want to make is a car.

W: What? You're crazy!

M: I'm very serious!

Text 8

M: Liza, I've heard that you want to move into a homestay family.

W: Yes. I've been staying with my aunt. But my cousin is arriving from Brisbane, and my aunt needs a room for him.

M: No wonder. When would you like to move out from your aunt's house?

W: My cousin arrives on November 18th, so I'd better be out next Friday.

M: Is that the 17th of November?

W: That's right, just a week from today.

M: How long have you been in Australia?

W: A year in Adelaide and half a year in Sydney. I prefer Sydney. I've got many friends here.

M: What are you studying now?

W: I was studying General English in Adelaide and now I'm doing Academic English, because I'm trying to get into Medicine next year.

M: Sounds good, but it will take you a long time.

Text 9

M: Josie, do you remember Jerry in my office?

W: Yeah. I have seen him before at your party, and you have told me something about him.

M: He left last week.

W: Left? Really? Do you know why?

M: He didn't come in by Tuesday, so on Tuesday afternoon I called to see whether he was off the day or he was sick.

W: And what did he say?

M: No answer. I talked to my boss, and it seems that he tried to call Jerry in the morning before me. But he couldn't get through either.

W: Strange.

M: Anyway, by the end of the day, Jerry sent an e-mail explaining everything.

W: An e-mail? So, why did he leave?

M: Well, he found a new job last month, but he forgot to tell us about it.

W: You're joking! How can anyone do that?

Text 10

W: Well, my name is Alice and recently, I've finished a tour which is not the type of thing I'd usually go for. But because we won it, we didn't have to pay anything. We didn't get off to a good start, though, because the bus from the airport to the hotel was awful. It took ages. The trip was all-inclusive, so all drinks and meals were included in the price. The drinks were fantastic! The hotel food was either tasteless or too hot, but the waiters were all friendly and knowledgeable at least. James decided he wanted to take a trip to a museum, so I went along. Actually, I didn't really like it. It was not as good as I expected. I surely preferred being near the ocean. The beach was amazing and I went there several times. In the second week, James went off on his own into the mountains, but I stayed in the hotel. I once tried going on an elephant ride, but it was terrible. Elephants frightened me, so I gave up. The two weeks went by so quickly. We got back last night and, all in all, I think it was a great trip, really relaxing. I'm so glad we entered the competition.
